

Executive Department
State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

WHEREAS, methamphetamine is a highly addictive and extremely dangerous drug that is affecting the families that form the foundation of the State of Idaho; and

WHEREAS, methamphetamine use comes at great cost to law enforcement, corrections, courts, communities and families forced to endure the ugly effects of addiction and dependence; and

WHEREAS, it is important to generate awareness about the damaging effects of methamphetamine abuse on individuals, families and American communities; and

WHEREAS, education and public outreach are at the heart of the Idaho drug control strategy, and National Methamphetamine Awareness Day will play an important role in highlighting the nationwide efforts to increase awareness and decrease demand of this highly addictive and dangerous drug; and

WHEREAS, National Methamphetamine Awareness Day represents a coordinated effort not only to reach potential meth users with a message of prevention, but also to educate current users about the programs available to them;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JAMES E. RISCH, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim November 30th, 2006,

NATIONAL METHAMPHETAMINE AWARENESS DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this 30th day of November in the year of our Lord two-thousand and six and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred thirty-first and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred seventeenth.

JAMES E. RISCH
GOVERNOR
